Weekend rides:

Sat June 4, 2011 – 10AM start - All levels

Adopt-A-Highway road clean-up and ride to Phoenixville Farmers Market

ALL Classes, 11 mph. Meet at in the first parking lot West of the Knox Covered Bridge (c. 1865) on Yellow Springs Road, at PA252, in Valley Forge Park. There is a PENNDOT Adopt-A-Highway sign at the entrance to the lot. . The clean-up starts at 10:00 am. Our Adopt-A-Highway road clean-up is a civic event jointly sponsored by BBC and BCP. Bring your bike and gear. The clean-up takes about one hour. After the clean-up, we will do C and D paced rides (all ride together; No one dropped) to the popular Phoenixville Farmers Market and lunch at the famous Fitzwater Station on the Schuylkill Canal, in Mont Clare. And, for all who help with the clean up, we will deal poker during lunch. The three top hands will receive a free lunch. Bring $ for lunch in case you don't win at poker. SEPTA bus routes #124 & #125 stop close by the park. Call one of the leaders if you need directions to the start. PLEASE NOTE: We're doing this clean-up on a Saturday and at a later time to make it easier for you to join us. We need nine people for a full crew. So, please let one of the leaders know in advance, if you can commit to the clean-up. Leaders: Steve Trobovic, wildyugo@..., 610-687-9229 and Arnie Roseman, biker73pa@..., 610-640-4529
